PARISH MISION STATEMENT:

Saints Peter and Paul Catholic Church, made up of Fluvanna County and neighboring communities, aware of our rich Roman Catholic tradition and our own particular parish needs, we dedicate ourselves to praising God through liturgy and prayer. In the spirit of Saint Peter and Saint Paul, the great Apostles and missionaries, we commit ourselves through Education and Social Service ministries, to building a Christian Community in which the Gospel of Jesus Christ might be exemplified and fulfilled.

Christ is indeed risen!

Friends, we began preparing for Easter more than forty days ago, so that we may outgrow our weaknesses and bad inclinations that would affect our spiritual growth. Today at Easter we celebrate that victory over the struggles we have overcome. Easter is the greatest and the most important feast in the Church. It marks the birthday of our eternal hope.

"Easter" literally means "the feast of fresh flowers.", but for us Catholics it is the feast of fresh/new lives, that Jesus Christ through his Passion, death, and resurrection has purchased back for us. We celebrate it with pride and jubilation because The Resurrection of Christ is the basis of our Christian Faith, and so it guarantees our own resurrection, for Jesus himself testified to his Resurrection from the dead in Mark 8:31; Matthew 17:22 and Luke 9:22, and lastly, Easter is a feast which gives us hope and encouragement in this world of pain, sorrows and tears.

This Hope means that we that is to say, you and I are Easter people, a people of hope. Because of what happened on that first Easter morning when Jesus rose from the dead, we know that there is always the empty tomb. With the tomb empty, the grief and tears of Good Friday, as well as the grief and tears of our personal darkness or sin, gives way to the incomparable joy of Easter.

As Easter people, as Children of hope, we understand the true meaning of that word. Hope is not wishing, hope is not dreaming. Hope is our serene confidence that God will never abandon us, no matter what trials we face in this life. Hope is at the heart of our faith, and Easter marks the greatest hope for all humanity.

Let the hopeful message of salvation embrace us. This is a day of joy, a day to celebrate.

Christ is alive! Christ is risen! Alleluia!

I wish you a very grace-filled Easter. As you and I commemorate the first Easter, may this Easter season be a time of renewed faith for all of us and a celebration of the hope that burns brightly in our hearts.

2017 Annual Diocesan Appeal
Building Our Family of Faith

As the Appeal continues into the month of April, it shows few signs of slowing down. In fact, it has now entered the next phase. To date, the Diocese has received decisions from many Catholic households through the February mailing from Bishop DiLorenzo and the in-pew weekends. However, there are many parishioners who have not had the opportunity to participate. To ensure this opportunity is realized, at the end of April, letters will be sent to those who have not yet given to the 2017 effort.

If you have not had the opportunity to contribute, please pick up a pledge envelope from our parish office. You can also donate securely online, as well as learn more about the nineteen ministries the Appeal supports, by visiting:

richmondcatholicfoundation.org/giving/annual-appeal/

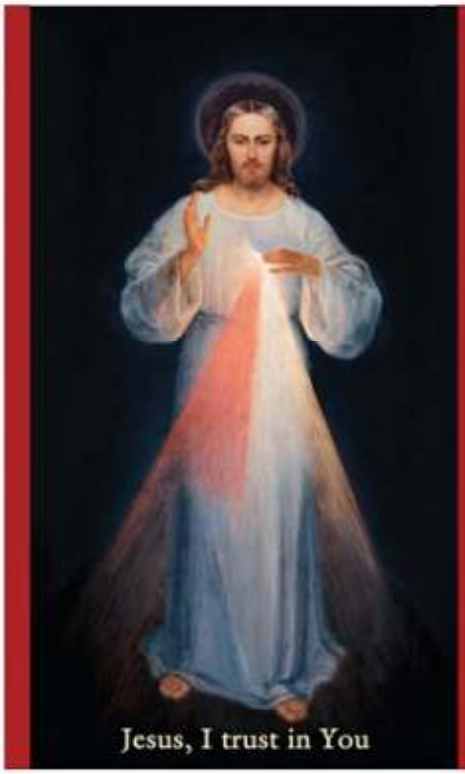
Please join us in supporting the 2017 Annual Appeal.

The Stone is Rolled Away
Christ is Risen

Very early on Sunday morning the women went to the tomb, carrying the spices they had prepared. They found the stone rolled away from the entrance to the tomb, so they went in; but they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus. They stood there puzzled about this, when suddenly two men in bright shining clothes stood by them. Full of fear, the women bowed down to the ground, as the men said to them,

> "Why are you looking among the dead for one who is alive? He is not here; he has been raised. Remember what he said to you while he was in Galilee: 'The Son of Man must be handed over to sinners, be crucified, and three days later rise to life.'"

Luke 24:1-12



Come Celebrate the Feast of Divine Mercy with Us!!

Sunday, April 23

Saints Peter and Paul Catholic Church

Divine Mercy is a message of HOPE for our troubled time …

Jesus said, "Before the Day of Justice, I am sending the Day of Mercy" (1588)

To learn what this means, come to the National Shrine's "Divine Mercy 101" film at 1:45pm in St John's Great Hall.

Then attend our 3pm Holy Hour Celebration in parish sanctuary!

Confessions available during celebration but beat the crowd by going before the Feast!

To fittingly observe the Feast of Mercy:

1. Celebrate the Feast on Sunday after Easter;
2. Sincerely repent of all sin;
3. Place complete trust in Jesus;
4. Go to Confession, preferably before Feast;
5. Receive Holy Communion on day of Feast;
6. Venerate the image of Divine Mercy;
7. Be merciful to others through actions, words, and prayers on their behalf.

*Celebrating this feast day removes ALL sin and punishment due for sin, including one's accumulated purgatory time.

Don't miss out on a brand new start! Tell your loved ones so they can receive this extraordinary grace as well!

Call (359-0578) for questions. Please come!

Our God is "RICH in MERCY … How much the world needs to understand and accept Divine Mercy!" – Saint John Paul II

VIRGINIA CATHOLIC CONFERENCE

Charts Tracking
State Legislators' Key 2017 Votes

How did your state legislators vote on issues important to Virginia Catholics? Find out by going to the Virginia Catholic Conference website at www.vacatholic.org for charts of key votes taken during the recent 2017 General Assembly session. The Senate and House charts track major legislative pursuits of Bishop Francis DiLorenzo and Bishop Michael Burbidge through the Conference, their public policy agency in Richmond. Included are votes on an initiative to defund Planned Parenthood and other abortion providers, a measure to protect faith-based institutions from being punished for acting according to their beliefs, and efforts to protect immigrants and refugees. Email advocacy network members – made up of Catholics in the pew, clergy and other concerned citizens -- contributed to the Conference's work by contacting their senators and delegates before key votes.

The Paschal Lamb

Among the popular Easter symbols, the lamb is by far the most significant of this great feast. The Easter lamb, representing Christ, with the flag of victory, may be seen in pictures and images in the homes of every central and eastern European family.

The oldest prayer for the blessing of lambs can be found in the seventh century sacramentary (ritual book) of the Benedictine monastery, Bobbio in Italy. Two hundred years later Rome had adopted it, and thereafter the main feature of the Pope's Easter dinner for many centuries was roast lamb. After the tenth century, in place of the whole lamb, smaller pieces of meat were used. In some Benedictine monasteries, however, even today whole lambs are still blessed with the ancient prayers.

The ancient tradition of the Pasch lamb also inspired among the Christians the use of lamb meat as a popular food at Easter time, and at the present time it is eaten as the main meal on Easter Sunday in many parts of eastern Europe. Frequently, however, little figures of a lamb made of butter, pastry, or sugar have been substituted for the meat, forming Easter table centerpieces.

In past centuries it was considered a lucky omen to meet a lamb, especially at Easter time. It was a popular superstition that the devil, who could take the form of all other animals, was never allowed to appear in the shape of a lamb because of its religious symbolism.

The Legend of the Dogwood:

In Jesus' time, the Dogwood tree had grown to a great size, like that of an Oak tree! They used it to build the cross that Jesus was hung on. This made the Dogwood tree sad. Jesus, sensing this sadness, promised the Dogwood tree that it would never again grow large enough to build a cross. It's branches would be narrow and crooked - not good for building at all. And now the Dogwood tree has many traits to remember this promise.

The Dogwood flower has 4 petals, shaped like a cross.

The middle of the Dogwood flower, a crown of thorns.

At the edge of each petals, a nail dent.

The nail dents are stained with the color of Jesus' blood.

So that's it- the Legend of the Dogwood flower!
