JULY 4th – REMINDER OF OUR HISTORY

It was on July 4, 1776, in the Second Continental Congress that we adopted the Declaration of Independence to declare to the world that we are separating from our mother country, England. It is likely that both Thomas Jefferson, the author of the Declaration of Independence and James Madison, the architect of the Constitution, were familiar with the writings of the Jesuit Saint Cardinal Robert Bellarmine, who argued that all power, including political power, came from God and was given to the people who entrusted this power to their elected leaders.

That is why God is mentioned four times in the Declaration. In fact, the Founding Fathers of America believed in a Creator and in a natural law. John Adams, our second President and President of the Second Continental Congress, once said “You have rights antecedent to all earthly governments: rights that cannot be repealed or restrained by human laws; rights derived from the Great Legislator of the universe.”

In the Declaration, Jefferson wrote “We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.” It means that we have a duty to protect these God given rights by voting into power leaders who believe in God and who have character, integrity, experience, and belief in inalienable human rights.

The first right Jefferson mentions is the right to life. In a letter to citizens in Washington County, Maryland in 1809, Jefferson wrote “The care of human life and happiness, and not their destruction, is the first and only legitimate object of good government.” Before he left the United States in his Farewell Address at Detroit Airport in 1987 Pope John Paul reminded our people and our leaders, “Every human person - no matter how vulnerable or helpless, no matter how young or how old, no matter how healthy, handicapped or sick, no matter how useful or productive for society - is a being of inestimable worth created in the image and likeness of God.”

On this Independence Day let us remember that we become faithful both to God and the vision of the Founding Fathers of this nation only if we work for the protection of human rights, especially the most basic human and civil right that we have which is the right to life.

God bless our nation.

An Open Letter to Our Former Faith Family:

Greetings from Bloomfield, Connecticut! We are unpacked for the most part but still completing the change-over paperwork for licenses, registrations, Medicare, banks, doctors, a "home" church, etc. Along with that, we are getting adjusted to a new routine, lifestyle, landscape (no lake!), and many new names and faces, each with a heart-warming welcome, a story to tell and a gift to share.

Our thoughts often return to you and the friendship and fellowship that we enjoyed and the parish that nurtured us for twenty years. We greatly appreciate the warm parish send off lavished on us as we departed as well as your gracious individual cards, words and well wishes. Thank you so much!

You will always be part of the dream we lived at the Lake and still carry with us, so it would be special to hear from you anytime. We can be reached one of the three following ways.

Via email - gcvsl1@gmail.com

In case you have forgotten

Thank you for your recent volunteer day with Fluvanna Habitat. You truly made a difference in the life of our homeowner!

Without you we cannot accomplish our mission. You are an inspiration, and we cannot express how much we appreciate your volunteer time!

With our best wishes for continued success.

Chapel of Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament is located next to the water fountains in the main hall of the church. Everyone has the opportunity to place our hopes, joys, troubles, fears, and dreams before the Lord. You are encouraged to sign up for a one-hour period of prayer or visit as you often as you can.

Regularly scheduled participants are asked to find a substitute from the ministry listing if they cannot keep their hour because of unforeseen illness, vacation, or absence.

There are currently some hours during the week that are without a regularly scheduled person and are filled as needed by generous substitutes.

Please prayerfully consider filling one of these hours and contact:

CALL TO ALL COOKIE MONSTERS!

The Ladies Auxiliary is having a Cookie-Sale
Sunday July 30th
after Mass

There are two ways to participate:

1 - Come on Sunday July 30 with some extra cash and buy enough cookies to stock your pantry. Remember, you can always freeze them to enjoy them later!!!

2—Bring your donation of cookies to the Parish Hall on Saturday, July 29th, and join the “Ladies” to wrap cookies and get them ready to sell ... hmmm no free tasting allowed but who knows maybe early birds purchases will be welcome.

Stay tuned!!

Refreshments/Snacks after Mass

Dear Fellow Parishioners,
We have volunteers that bring sweets, and snacks every Sunday, and bless their heart for the time and monetary effort that they make to promote the social interaction after Mass!

Maybe it is not of public domain, but our Church does not buy the paper products (plates, napkins, cups, etc.) that we all use every Sunday. We have seen how the container collecting donations to buy them remains empty (or close to empty) every Sunday.

May this be a kind reminder to please include a monetary donation in the container just right before you put the snacks on your plate.

Thanks!
