Catholic Diocese of Richmond
1820 Bicentennial 2020

Office of the Bishop

Diocese of Richmond

July 11, 2020

Dear Faithful of the Diocese of Richmond,

Today we commemorate the founding of our local Church two hundred years ago, and we recognize the Catholic presence in the Central Vicariate of our diocese.

The Catholic Church in Virginia experienced a period of turmoil that led Pope Pius VII to establish the Diocese of Richmond on July 11, 1820. Our founding document states that this diocese was created in order to resolve a formal division of believers that had arisen in Norfolk over the ownership of Church property and the appointment of pastors.

According to the text of our charter, “Since it seems to be very expedient for the extinction of the schisms which have arisen in it... We...have established and decreed that... a new... Church... be erected at Richmond... and that it should embrace the whole State of Virginia.”

Over the course of the next two centuries, Catholics in the Diocese of Richmond achieved some triumphs and successes, but they also experienced adversity and failure. Throughout this time, the Church persevered. Our bicentennial jubilee is a shrine to that witness of Catholic faith.

The fact that the diocesan bicentennial is taking place at a daunting time reminds us that we are part of this tradition of faith. In the past several months, the coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic has gripped the world. More recently, calls for racial justice have resounded in our country amid social upheaval. In both cases, the Church continues to proclaim the Gospel of Christ’s death and resurrection, which impels us to alleviate suffering and hopelessness, and to uphold the dignity of all persons.

This weekend’s ordination of two priests and a transitional deacon is a hopeful sign that the work of the Church is ongoing. With gratitude for the establishment of our diocese, and for two hundred years of Catholic witness, I have asked that a special Mass formulary from the Roman Missal (For Giving Thanks to God) be used throughout the diocese this weekend.

Like those who have gone before us in faith, may we carry out the work God has entrusted to us, bringing to fulfillment the words of our bicentennial motto: “Shine like stars in the world, as you hold fast to the word of life” (Phil. 2:15–16).

Sincerely in Christ,

Most Reverend Barry C. Knestout
Bishop of Richmond

Scouts BSA- Girl Troop 1138

- Scouts BSA is the traditional Scouting experience for youth in the fifth grade through high school. Troop 1138 is a very active girl troop with trained, dedicated leaders and parent support. A variety of trips are planned and designed by the youth leadership to include camping, zip lining, biking, and hiking.

Service, community engagement and leadership development become increasingly important parts of the program as youth lead their own activities and work their way toward earning Scouting's highest rank, Eagle Scout. Those who have earned the Eagle Scout rank count it among their most treasured achievements.

Our goal is to participate in scouting at all levels-local, regional, and national.

SHARING THE GOSPEL

The farmer is God. The seed is God's Word. That makes the soil your heart. If your heart is angry or stubborn, God's Word can't sink in. If your heart is shallow, God's Word can't take root. Instead, you will worry about getting power or riches. If your heart is discouraged by people who hate God, your faith will choke. If your heart is soft, God's Word will change your life, and it will show.

PRAYER

God, help my heart to be soft. Help your Word to change my life.

1st Communion - Sept. 19th

Confirmation - Sept. 26th

Focus on the Good

When I was a child, my mother had a set of sculptures resembling three human heads. One head had hands over the ears, one had hands over the eyes, and one had hands over the mouth. Of course, they depicted the phrase, "Hear no evil; see no evil; speak no evil." I have seen these images repeated many times since then, usually as the monkey heads from a Japanese proverb, which would have probably seemed a little less creepy to me when I was a small child. Apparently, there is no consensus about the full meaning or certain origin of these three images nor the phrase. At the very least, it causes us to reflect on the need to avoid evil and look for the good in things.

As I have lived my life, I have come to believe there are more people who lives their lives in a contrary manner to these images. It is not that they seek evil, but it is as if they "see no good, hear no good, and speak no good." Gossiping is the way they pass the time, and they always seem to find the negative in people and situations. Being a good steward certainly means that we do not seek evil, but more than that, it means that we see the abundance of good things all around us. These gifts of God are big and little, profound and ordinary. By seeing the world in this way, we begin to change our personalities and our overall disposition. We always need to follow a new proverb: see all the good, hear all the good, and speak about the good. Amen.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Do you want to pass the faith on to the next generation? Do you want to share how God is working in your life?

Do you want others to know how much God loves them?

Then prayerfully consider becoming a CCD volunteer. No teaching experience is needed. There are openings in pre-K and middle school, as well as opportunities in all classrooms. You are welcome to visit a class to get an idea of what goes on.

Any questions or to sign up please contact Celeste at cshapiola@yahoo.com or 434-981-1405.

If you would like to honor a loved one by having a Mass said for them, contact the office at Sts. Peter and Paul at 434.589.5201 to arrange an available date.

If you have pictures or ministry information to be added to St. Joseph's website, please email Melissa at: kenneymg@gmail.com.

The Bicentennial Prayer for the Diocese of Richmond

Father of lights,

The radiance of your Son has guided the advance of the Gospel across the Diocese of Richmond for two centuries, strengthening our Church from the Eastern Shore to the Cumberland Gap. Grant that the nearness of your Son may dispel the darkness of our sins, so that as our love increases more and more, we may dare more than ever to fearlessly proclaim the word. Holding fast to the word of life, may we shine like stars in the world. We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God for ever and ever. Amen.
