GOSPEL MEDITATION

World Day of Prayer for Vocations

Any builder worth his or her salt knows the value and importance of a cornerstone. Properly laying and securing this primary unit determines how the rest of the project unfolds and its success. Cornerstones are necessary elements not only of buildings but of lives as well. Many human beings conduct the business of their lives paying little attention to a grounding reference or starting point. Hence, what unfolds is a tapestry of relativism, with few anchors or guideposts and many impulsive choices. Some consider love to be their cornerstone. While this may sound attractive and useful, the pursuit of love without a simultaneous pursuit of its source can be shallow and self-focused. Just because a person chooses to do no harm and love others does not mean that they are living in truth and properly anchored to the real cornerstone.

Jesus is the true and authentic cornerstone and shepherd. It is only in following the Risen One as the way, the truth, and the life that we can move from being well grounded ethical people to properly focused moral ones. Proper conduct, a true sense of justice, wisdom, virtue, moral principles, faith, hope and love will be difficult to find unless we listen to the right Voice. It is when we learn to listen to the voice of God that we begin our journey on the road to salvation. It is only the Good Shepherd, the authentic and solid cornerstone, who can guide us through life's questions and challenges and bring us to the safe and proper pasture.

A person's life only has meaning when the cornerstone is properly selected and set. Understanding themselves only as random acts of creation, existing without intent or purpose, will color their choices and influence their decisions. The foundation of their lives will be simply a matter of preference and choice, leaving benchmarks of growth and higher ideals optional to pursue. Whereas people who believe that they are fashioned and loved into existence by a God who purposely made them, have this incredible unconditional relationship at their source which has tremendous significance. Their allegiance is not to themselves but to their Creator. Life, then, is an adventure in search of this Creator God and a journey of self-discovery that seeks to unite their will to His. There is a cost. We have to give up our life in order to gain our life. As ironic as that sounds, it is true. It is only when we finally figure this out that the true cornerstone of our lives will be properly laid and we can, with God's help, get about the business of properly constructing a temple that endures.

PARISH YOUTH

Join Scouting!

Do you have a son or daughter between the ages of 6 and 17? Now is the perfect time to sign him or her up for Scouts. The Scouting program helps youth develop academic skills, self-confidence, ethics, leadership skills, and citizenship skills that influence their adult lives.

For more information contact:

Scouts BSA- Girl Troop 1138 - Scouts BSA is the traditional Scouting experience for youth in the fifth grade through high school. Troop 1138 is a very active girl troop with trained, dedicated leaders and parent support. A variety of trips are planned and designed by the youth leadership to include camping, zip lining, biking, and hiking.

Service, community engagement and leadership development become increasingly important parts of the program as youth lead their own activities and work their way toward earning Scouting's highest rank, Eagle Scout. Those who have earned the Eagle Scout rank count it among their most treasured achievements.

Our goal is to participate in scouting at all levels-local, regional, and national.

Please contact us if you would like more information, or would like to join this fantastic program!

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Although we prefer traditional classroom instruction we will use an online program for virtual instruction due to Covid. We found an excellent program from My Catholic Faith Delivered. You can see a short video overview of it at:

<https://youtu.be/AM0R-JIYB4>

The cost is $45 for the first child and $20 for each additional child.

Registration forms are available at the office or on our website. Please provide a copy of the child(ren)'s baptismal certificate.

RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults) -

This program provides instruction to non-baptized and non-Catholics who are interested in becoming full members of the Catholic Church. If you, a spouse or a friend is interested in learning more about the Catholic faith, please contact the office at 434-589-5201 and someone will get in touch with you.

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK -

First Reading:

We hear how Peter courageously testified before the Sanhedrin that in Jesus' name the crippled man was healed and in Jesus' name all believers are saved. How strong is the conviction of your faith when someone challenges you?

Second Reading:

John speaks to his community of believers as "children of God." What do you see as some of the implications of such a designation?

Gospel:

In speaking of himself as "the good shepherd" who cares deeply for his sheep, Jesus contrasts himself to "a hired man" (the Pharisees) who has no concern for his sheep. How should have the Pharisees reacted to this criticism?

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Confidence in Princes

Have you ever confided your problems to a friend, only to get the answer, "have you prayed about it as much as you've talked about it?" Like all good advice, it can really irritate the recipient at first. Here I am, vulnerable and wounded, unloading my problems, and this joker tries to load them right back up and ship them off to Someone with a higher pay grade. But again, like all good and irritating advice, it rings true if you sit and think about it. Sure, venting is helpful. We all need that friend or family member who can listen to our problems. But if we ever start to think that person can solve them, it's a good sign that we're losing perspective.

Are you looking to the world for an answer? Are you looking in the mirror, expecting to find a solution to your problems? Are you expecting happiness, peace, contentment or justice to come from any place other than God? "It is better to take refuge in the Lord than to put confidence in princes," the Psalms tell us. Well, I've never put much confidence in princes. But when it comes to problems, I often find myself telling God to take a step back — "I've got this."

It's tough to pray about any problem as much as you talk about it. We want so badly to tackle the issue ourselves. But I'll let you in on a secret: it doesn't matter what the question is, we don't have the answer. Take it to the One who does.

ADOPT A PLOT

Do you like working in the garden? We are looking for volunteers to ADOPT A PLOT on the church grounds to pull weeds, spread mulch and, at the same time, help Building & Grounds beautify our church property. Maintenance would be needed at least once a month around curbs and trees. This could be a great community service project for families. Please contact Scott or Pat Harrison at 434.964.6916 for details.

Thank you very much for your consideration!

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

The cornerstone is the first stone that is laid and the stone that not only determines how the other stones are placed but the position of the entire structure.

As human beings, we need a cornerstone or reference point so that our lives can be properly placed and positioned. Our cornerstone determines not only how we see ourselves but who we will become. Without a cornerstone or reference point, we will be disconnected, disoriented and poorly positioned for effective action in our world.

In order to be the children of God we are, Jesus Christ needs to be our cornerstone and the reference point for all that we do. He alone is the Good Shepherd who can guide us through life's questions and challenges, bringing us to proper pasture. Without this appropriate foundation, we can easily fall into the trap of self-aggrandizement and quickly lose our way. If that happens, then moral principles, proper conduct, justice, wisdom and virtue will be difficult to find.

We need to listen to the right voices and allow God to show us how to build our house well. Salvation only comes from God and only God will protect us, no matter the cost.

APRIL

While Father David is Away.....

Father Stephen J. Toth visits our parishes this weekend to talk about his ministry to provide direct relief to the poor throughout Latin America and the Caribbean.

Father Toth will share personal witness about Food for the Poor's mission to care for the destitute as a means of living out the Gospel mandate to love one another.

Father Toth was called to the priesthood due to his work with Mother Teresa in Calcutta & the Missionaries of Charity in India, Lima, Peru, Brazil and Haiti. He was ordained in 2002 for the Archdiocese of Newark. In addition to preaching on behalf of Food For The Poor, he is a hospital Chaplain in New Jersey.

Food For The Poor brochures will be available during Father Toth's visit. As always, our support to this very worthy cause is greatly appreciated. May our Lord bless you with His love, peace and joy.

This weekend Buildings & Grounds is hosting its Spring Plant & Flower Sale outside the church after each Mass. Special thanks to Patricia Harrison for spearheading this effort, and many thanks to everyone who contributed their planters, pots, cuttings, tools, gloves and gardening expertise.

We appreciate your support & hope to see you there!

Changing lives, one meal at a time.

Fluvanna Meals on Wheels (MOW) wonders if you know someone that needs meals. Here is a way to see if they qualify for Meals on Wheels:

- ◆ Are they home bound with limited means of transportation?
- ◆ Are they in need of a balanced meal at lunchtime?
- ◆ Are they physically, mentally, or medically challenged to prepare meals?
- ◆ Do they live in Fluvanna County?
- ◆ Would they be receptive to receive meals?

Meal costs are determined individually based upon monthly income and expenses using a sliding scale to adjust the cost as needed.

Please contact MOW at 434-589-1685 with anyone that you feel needs assistance or would like additional information.

Prayer to St. Joseph

Oh, Saint Joseph, foster-father of Jesus, most pure spouse of the Virgin Mary, pray for us daily to the same Jesus, the Son of God, that we, being defended by the power of His grace and striving faithfully in life, may be crowned by Him at the hour of death. Amen.

This week, Fr. Stephen Toth visits to celebrate Mass and talk about his ministry. Thousands of families became homeless and vulnerable after Hurricanes Eta and Iota swept through Central America. Immediate emergency relief is still needed for the victims who face starvation and death as the storm and flood waters destroyed crops. There is great need for ongoing assistance throughout the year because:

- ◆ Nearly half of all child deaths under 5 years old are caused by malnutrition
- ◆ More than 1 billion children are living in poverty
- ◆ Millions live in unsafe shacks and huts
- ◆ Contaminated water is a leading cause of death for children in developing countries
- ◆ There are more than 132 million orphaned or abandoned children in the world
- ◆ There are more than 1 billion people lacking access to medical care.

Fr. Toth's ministry helps those living in extreme poverty in primarily 17 Latin American and Caribbean countries by providing basic essentials and opportunities for long-term development. So far this year Food for the Poor has:

- ◆ Built 184 new homes giving families in need shelter, protection from the elements and a safe place to call home.
- ◆ Delivered 369 tractor-trailer sized containers packed with food, medicine and other essentials.
- ◆ Provided 34 million meals to help the poorest of the poor get the food they so desperately need.

Food for the Poor Ministry is a reflection of our Lord's unconditional love - a love that surrenders all, that inspires trust and faith and that embraces all people regardless of race, status or creed; and, it relies on the loving compassion and kind generosity of its donors.

Please prayerfully consider how and to what extent you may be able to help to relieve those who are materially poor as well as those who are poor in spirit.

Thank you for your support.

SHARING THE GOSPEL

Jesus is the Good Shepherd. He wants you to help your family and friends. Jesus wants to guide you like a shepherd guides the sheep. Do what you can to help others. Bring in a bag of groceries. Take someone a drink of water. Get a blanket for someone. Or just sit down and listen to a friend's funny or sad story. Then you will be a good shepherd just like Jesus.

PRAYER

Jesus, show me ways to help my family and friends.
