THE 11AM MASS TO HAVE A CHARACTER OF A FAMILY MASS

Our children, are like seedlings in a nursery bed. When you see these seedlings, you have hope that there will be a fresh new forest in the near future. The future of our Church lies with our children, educated and formed towards truth. We have a great responsibility as care-takers of these seedlings to tenderly fertilize, water and to protect them from any pests and weeds that could tamper with their growth.

I, therefore, invite all the stakeholders in our church to see to it that children are loved, supported and encouraged to find meaning in the Church. Bravo to everyone who makes the learning of our children a success! In a very special way, I am so grateful to all our Catechists for volunteering your time and all other resources in order for our children to learn and to get to love Jesus. Thank you very much!

On Sunday, August 29th, we were blessed to host our young parents together with their children at a holy sacrifice of Mass. It was a very wonderful moment being in the company of our young people: the promising future of the Church.

At that Mass, I assured the parents that I, as their Pastor, as long as I am here, commit myself to support them in the very dear responsibility of nurturing and educating their children towards the truth; which truth is only found in a positive relationship with God.

The 11 am Mass going forward will have a character of a family. Young parents are encouraged to attend this Mass, and we commit to supporting them as they bring their children to Mass, and to help them fall in love with Jesus; their friend.

Recently we hired the Coordinator of Religious Education and Youth Ministry. And steadily, we are moving in a positive direction. Working with the Evangelization office, I intend to see that children are learning using the different facilities that we have at our disposal. Our children should feel welcome, and we are making all the possible effort to make them feel at home whenever they come to church to pray.

Last Sunday, I met with the parents of our kids in the CCD program. It was a very short meeting, but very fruitful. John: the Coordinator of Religious Education and Youth Ministry and I, thanked the parents for bringing their children to Sts. Peter and Paul to learn. We encouraged them to join their children to celebrate Mass. Our point was that unless the parents are willing to support us as we help their children learn, all we do here becomes a waste of time. Yes, we share our faith, we teach our children, but this responsibility squarely comes back to the shoulders of the parents. It is our hope that we are able to work together to ensure that our kids appreciate what is being taught to them.

Thank you dear young parents! May God bless you as you nurture and educate your children towards the truth of God.

Your brother,

Fr. David

Scouts BSA- Girl Troop 1138 - Scouts BSA is the traditional Scouting experience for youth in the fifth grade through high school. Troop 1138 is a very active girl troop with trained, dedicated leaders and parent support. A variety of trips are planned and designed by the youth leadership to include camping, zip lining, biking, and hiking.

Service, community engagement and leadership development become increasingly important parts of the program as youth lead their own activities and work their way toward earning Scouting's highest rank, Eagle Scout. Those who have earned the Eagle Scout rank count it among their most treasured achievements.

Our goal is to participate in scouting at all levels-local, regional, and national.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

If Heaven were like Harvard

There's no getting around it: life on earth can seem easier if you're rich. Most of the bodily and material needs a person could have are fulfilled if you've got a little bit of money behind you. So why doesn't this same theory apply to entering the kingdom of Heaven? Why isn't Heaven like an Ivy League school, where a connection and a hefty tuition check might open a lot of doors?

When you think about it, the virtues required to enter Heaven — things like charity and justice and courage — should be even closer within the grasp of those who never had to worry about where their food is coming from. In theory, your capacity for good works should only increase with the resources at your disposal. The same is true for stewardship potential. Let's say I've got a lot of talent. Maybe I've got a lot of free time. On paper, it should be easier for me to give freely of these gifts, because I have the luxury that eluded the widow and her two coins: I can see my ample gift being put into action, when so many can only offer what they have and remind themselves that God sees it and appreciates it.

But here we get into the mess of humanity: if we have a lot of something, it means we have a lot of something we could use any way we want. And then we hear the whisper of the serpent: Think of what this (money, time, talent) could do for you. May we pray for God to give us the heart of the widow, no matter our resources.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

SAINT OF THE WEEK – EXAMPLES OF OUR FAITH

St. Teresa of Ávila | Feast Day October 15

St. Teresa of Ávila (1515-1582) was a Spanish Carmelite nun who lived in the 16th century. She was a mystic and author of spiritual writings and poems. The originator of the Carmelite Reform, she founded numerous convents throughout Spain and restored a contemplative life to the order. She became well known for the mystical experiences, many of which she described in her autobiography. The first of only four women to be named a Doctor of the Church, St. Teresa's ascetic doctrine and Carmelite reforms shaped Roman Catholic contemplative life, and her writings on the Christian soul's journey to God are considered works of art. Her writings, especially the "Way of Perfection" and "The Interior Castle," have helped generations of believers. St. Teresa of Avila died on Oct. 15, 1582. She was canonized on March 22, 1622, along with three of her greatest contemporaries: St. Ignatius Loyola, St. Francis Xavier, and St. Philip Neri.

PRAYER TO ST. JOSEPH

Oh, Saint Joseph, foster-father of Jesus, most pure spouse of the Virgin Mary, pray for us daily to the same Jesus, the Son of God, that we, being defended by the power of His grace and striving faithfully in life, may be crowned by Him at the hour of death. Amen.

Reflections on St. Joseph

Save the Dates!

We hope you are enjoying our Reflections talks and that you and others will continue to join us on Thursday evenings for Mass -- and especially on the last Thursday of each month -- for a lively discussion and to learn more about our Patron Saint. (Due to the Thanksgiving holiday, we will conclude Reflections on St. Joseph on Thursday, November 18th.)

Our next Reflections talk on October 28th will focus on the faithfulness of St. Joseph presented by Reverend Christopher Masla from Church of the Incarnation in Charlottesville.

DATE	TOPIC	SPEAKER
Oct. 28	Faithfulness of St. Joseph	Fr. Chris Masla
Nov. 18	St. Joseph and the Eucharist	Fr. Joseph Mary Lukyamuzi

Bishop Barry C. Knestout will be here with us to celebrate Mass on the first Sunday of Advent, November 28th, to close the year of St. Joseph.

SAVE THE DATE. . . .

The annual Craft Fair will be held on November 13 at Saints Peter and Paul. We are looking for volunteers to work, as well as donations of craft items and baked goods that we can sell. This is one of our biggest fundraisers of the year for the parish, so please consider helping with your time or talent!

SHARING THE GOSPEL

The man in today's Gospel reading thought he was pretty good. He had been careful to obey most of God's rules. But he forgot the most important rule of all - - love God with all your heart, mind, soul and strength. When Jesus asked the man to give away all he owned, the man went away sad. He loved money more than he loved God.

PRAYER

Dear God,

Help me to love you more than all the gifts you have given to me.
