ENCOUNTER

Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord

Pope St. John Paul II rightly taught, “To believe in Jesus is to accept what he says, even when it runs contrary to what others are saying. It means rejecting the lure of sin, however attractive it may be, in order to set out on a difficult path of Gospel virtues.” Acceptance, rejection, suffering, betrayal, fear, reluctance, persecution, and painful, undeserved and unjust death are all played out in dramatic fashion today. Jesus spoke of God’s unconditional love, mercy and forgiveness. Who doesn’t like hearing about love, especially God’s? Jesus did not have backs turned on him, face intense suffering and succumb to a horrific death because he spoke of God’s love. All of those things occurred because of the implications of actually believing in God’s love.

God’s love comes with an intimate and equal bond with love of neighbor. This moves the believer outward to truly see their brothers and sisters as equals and compels them to work for a world that mirrors God’s kingdom: a world based on justice, peace, mercy and forgiveness. Sometimes, people want to keep God’s love to themselves and use it solely for their own benefit. When they only want to use God’s love to justify their own intentions and for their own projects, problems occur.

Sin makes something hurtful, destructive, and self-serving look very attractive and justifiable. The lure of sin creates friends who begin to believe the lie that the sin expounds. This is what happened on Calvary. When you begin actually doing what Jesus is saying and translate love into action, it inevitably will upset popular and longstanding conventions and structures. Many of these serve to protect status, foster personal gain and success, and further divide those who have from those who do not. Most people who hear the Gospel are attracted to what they hear, at first. When they realize that it means standing apart from popular opinion, even if that opinion is against the Gospel and sinful, they cower back in fear and join the throngs shouting, “Crucify him!” There is an ambivalence found in many believers as they struggle with whether their belief is strong enough “to set out on the difficult path of Gospel virtues.”

It takes a lot of courage to admit that the system is broken. It takes even more courage to point out the sin. And it takes an unbreakable love of God to then accept the consequences of doing so.

CATHOLIC TRIVIA – JUST FOR FUN

Question:

What's the most important day and celebration in the Church's year?

Answer: Easter

SHARE THE GOSPEL

One day the people were happy, praising Jesus and waving palm leave to keep him cool. The next day they were spitting on him. They said, "Crucify him. Crucify him." it hurts when your best friend says he or she likes you one day and hates you the next day. Jesus will never leave your side. He is a true friend. He will always talk and play with you because he loves you.

PRAYER

I want to be a good friend of yours every day, Lord.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - A God Who Knows How It Feels

Christ could have spoken anything from the cross, so why did he choose to recite Psalm 22? And why is it so important that we recite that same Psalm at today’s Mass?

“My God, my God, why have You abandoned me?”

We’ve never known the Jesus of the Gospels to doubt the will of God. We’ve never known him to be a defeatist or to give into feelings of despair. He’s the hero who walks on water, the Savior who is welcomed to Jerusalem with a pathway of palms. And he knows how this story ends; he knows full well that his Father has absolutely not abandoned him.

So why does he say this? Jesus doesn’t make offhanded comments, especially in his last hour. Today, when we repeat the words that he calls out in his darkest moment, we must remember that he wants us, very particularly, to consider them.

With his crucifixion, Jesus reminds us of his humanity. He is a man of flesh that can be torn and blood that can be shed. Somehow, in tandem with his divinity, he still possesses a heart that knows fear and pain and longing. And with this seemingly hopeless cry, he reminds us of that.

Let us never doubt that Jesus can relate to us in our brokenness. This is the week, friends. This is the week that reminds us that our God is a God who knows every pang, every trembling, and every uncertainty of human life. Our God knows what abandonment feels like. He knows what rejection feels like. He knows what it is to keep going when the strength and the will has disappeared.

BUILDING and GROUNDS

Are you tired of the growing stacks of used planters and pots at your house? The B & G team wants them. We are gearing up for our next plant sale in May and could make good use of them. If you have excess clippings or are thinning your perennials, we'd like those too.

Contact Scott or Pat Harrison at

Spring Clean-Up of Cemetery

The landscaping crew will be mowing the cemetery grounds. Excessive flowers on an around graves will interfere with the mowing and weeding; and, we cannot guarantee that the mowers will not mow down any flowers or plants in their way.

Families who have loved ones buried at our cemetery to please keep artificial and/or live flowers and plants and other decorations such as flags, statues, etc. to a minimum and should be placed as close to the monument as possible. With Spring around the corner, it's time to replace old and faded flowers with new flowers, real or artificial. Keep in mind that we do not allow glass flower containers or votive candles in glass containers or festive balloons.

Your help and assistance in keeping our cemetery looking nice, clean and reverent for all who visit our beloved deceased is appreciated. Should you have suggestions or issues regarding our cemetery, please contact Mandy Tolano at 540-595-7173 or email at mtolano@richmonddiocese.org.

DID YOU KNOW?

- ☐ Forty eight out of the first forty nine popes were declared to be saints.
- ☐ There have been 21 popes that have taken the name John, the most of any name; however, two of those were referred to as John the 23rd. The reason for this discrepancy is that John XVI and the first John the 23rd were both antipopes because of a clerical counting error, John XX was skipped.
- ☐ Before taking a religious name, Mother Teresa of Calcutta's name was Agnes.

INTROSPECTIVE

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Hailed one moment and rejected the next. This seems to be the pattern that repeats itself not only throughout history but in our own lives as well.

Jesus wants to be triumphantly welcomed into our hearts with joy! And welcome him we do! Then come the times when we do exactly the opposite and we reject the teachings of the Gospel and turn our backs on God's friendship. The one who at one time is a friend now becomes an enemy.

Jesus understands our ambivalence. He lived it on the way to the cross. Understanding the full array of human emotion, God accepts us where we are. There is a great deal of drama on the road to Calvary. Our lives can be dramatic as well. In all of those whirlwind moments it can be difficult to find God's presence and understand his will.

We walk with Jesus this week seeking inspiration and hope, the essential keys needed to unlock the door to God's presence in our lives.

WEEKLY QUESTIONS: REFLECT ON SCRIPTURE

First Reading:

We hear in today's reading how the prophet Isaiah suffered for his commitment to his call and for his fidelity to the Lord. And yet, Isaiah never lost his faith in God. When has your faith been put to the test?

Second Reading:

Paul recites an early Christological hymn to the Philippians describing Jesus' human and divine nature. The hymn states that Jesus "did not regard equality with God something to be grasped." What do you think this assertion is teaching us about Jesus' dual nature?

Gospel:

In his account of the passion narrative, we hear how Luke emphasizes the innocence of Jesus, noting both Pilate and Herod (Antipas) find Jesus innocent. Why do you think Luke highlights the verdict of Jesus as "not guilty" of any capital crime?
