ENCOUNTER

Dear Sts. Peter and Paul Family,

Christ is Risen!

I pray and I do hope your Easter was peaceful and joyful. I pray that you continue to carry that peace and joy, well aware that Christ is risen indeed. Now that He is risen, sin and death have no power over us. We now have our life in Him and through Him; all our being finds its meaning and purpose in the Risen Lord. I therefore congratulate you all, Easter people!

At the beginning of Lent, I humbly asked you to make an extra sacrifice on top of the many sacrifices that you often make for our parish, for which I am so grateful as your pastor. Many of you responded towards this invitation. At the end of this joyous and generous activity, we have raised a little above $ 3,500. Thank you very much, dear parishioners, for your Lenten generosity, as you benefited Sts. Peter and Paul Church. This will go towards our debt reduction as we agreed at the beginning of Lent.

May the Lord God bless you as you continue on the Journey as you serve his people!

Gratefully,

Fr. David

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZING GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS Gifts in Disguise

Have you ever opened a gift and wondered what the giver was thinking? I won’t call out any of my family or friends here, but suffice to say, I think we have all been the confused recipient of a sweater that wasn’t our size or a gift card to a store where we don’t shop. But we smiled all the same and said how much it meant to us, because we know that when it comes to gifts, it’s all about the gesture.

Suffering is a lot like that — the gift you never asked for, and don’t really want to receive. Sometimes we look at suffering and, like the apostles who see Jesus as a stranger on the shore, we don’t recognize it for what it can be. We don’t appreciate the catalyst suffering can be for change, for growth, for grace.

What was the gift that you received in disguise? Was it a relationship that confounded and frustrated you? Was it a job that tested your spirit? An obstacle that stopped you dead in your tracks? A rejection that threatened to break your spirit?

If I go back and look at the worst gifts I’ve ever gotten, chances are that I didn’t like them because I didn’t know what to do with them — they were more fitted for someone else’s interests, someone else’s life. It’s the same with suffering. We’re tempted to cast suffering aside when it comes our way because it doesn’t fit the person we are. Suffering is made to fit the person God knows we have the ability, with His grace, to become.

Hang onto that suffering. Unlike the misshapen sweater, it really will come in handy.

INTROSPECTIVE

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

What prevents us from seeing the Lord? We are not used to seeing Jesus in the ordinary, everyday events of our lives. We expect some kind of startling, extraordinary revelation to occur that definitely and unmistakably sends a signal that God wants our attention. We don't expect a visit from Jesus while we are having breakfast, doing the dishes, running after the kids, negotiating a deal at work, or taking a shower!

Sometimes when God simply stands on the shore of our lives casually looking for us, we don't recognize him. Did we ever stop and think that God is really and truly interested in the routine, run of the mill events of our lives? So, "what did you do today?" God may ask. Maybe we don't think that God is concerned about such things, or we are so consumed with life's demands that we give it little if any thought. Perhaps we are determined to achieve our own success, desire to control things ourselves or not really sure what God cares about.

God is there. One day, out of the blue, God will get our attention and ask, "Do you love me?"

SHARE THE GOSPEL

When the apostles ran out of food, they went fishing. They fished all night long, but they didn't catch anything. In the early hours of the morning, they saw Jesus standing on shore. He told them to put their nets down in the water on the right side of their boat. They caught so many fish that their net was filled to the top. They were very glad they had listened to Jesus.

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK REFLECT AND RESPOND TO SCRIPTURE

First Reading:

The apostles faced trial and even persecution from the religious leaders of Jerusalem (the Sanhedrin) for bearing witness to the resurrection of Jesus. Why do you think some people are threatened by the good news of Jesus risen from the dead?

Second Reading:

John sees a vision of heaven in which all of the created order is worshipping Jesus as the slain and risen "Lamb." What images of heaven bring you comfort?

Gospel:

The resurrected Jesus appeared to seven of his disciples while they were fishing on the Sea of Tiberias. In doing so, Jesus comes to strengthen Peter for his upcoming leadership role. What gives you strength in your faith journey?
