ENCOUNTER

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Brendan wouldn't stop. He continued nagging his mom to let him have a little more time with his phone. He knew the rules but wanted to finish a game and text a few more friends. He begged, had a temper tantrum, pleaded, screamed, pouted, and used every means he could think of to get Mom to change her mind. Mom had a busy day and was tired. At first, she held her ground. Then, her son's persistence got the best of her, and she caved. "Brendan, you can have 30 more minutes and no more!" she retorted. Brendan's determination paid off. He won.

Is this how it works with God too? If we want something enough and feel it is our due, does our persistence allow us to eventually get our way? Judging God by human standards, it would seem so. But is this the way God works? It gets a bit confusing when Jesus tells his disciples to "pray always without becoming weary" and then further tells them how God will "secure the rights of his chosen ones who call out to him day and night." If we catch God at the right time, when he's having a weak moment, then our tenacity ought to pay off. What we want, we will get. Really? Sadly, the way many approach prayer suggests that this is precisely how it goes.

Good parents set boundaries and offer proper discipline. They learn the art of being steadfast when presented with determined minds and wills. They know what is best and, at times, have to say "no." God is always there with His full attention and unconditional love showering itself upon us. God also knows what is best. And, as with any good parent, the one constant that is always available and never withheld is love. We can be as persistent and determined as we want if what we are seeking is God's love. We are never a bother and requests for God's love are never denied. This is the prayer of the heart. Desiring God alone and not only what we want God to do for us places this love relationship foremost in our minds, hearts, and souls. God is never bothered by this prayer. As we breathe in and exhale out, the Divine Life freely flows.

October
Wedding Anniversaries

If you are celebrating your wedding anniversary in October and wish to be part of the marriage blessing at Mass on either November 5th or 6th, please contact the office by Friday, October 28th.

"Blessed are the peacemakers," the Lord taught us in The Sermon on the Mount, "for they will be called children of God." And so, seeking to grow in faithfulness to the Lord, we set about making peace, working for it's fruition in every dark corner of the world. And, as in all our work for the Kingdom, we begin with prayer, praying that God's peace may touch all places where violence seeks a foothold and, if it be His will, may our hands have a part.

We are saying the Rosary for World Peace on October 22nd by the statue of Our Lady of Guadalupe at 12:00pm. We would like all to join us if you can. Please bring a chair. For more information, call Eileen Tyler at 434.589.3255.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Sparking Holiness

As the seasons change, a lot of us like to clean out our homes and unload some of the junk we've acquired over the summer. One trendy approach to decluttering is the Marie Kondo method, named after the author who popularized it. Overly simplified, it's a process that compels you to go through your closets, your garage, your basement — all the places you collect the dreaded "stuff." As you do so, you hold up the items and ask yourself: "Does it spark joy?" It's a question that is bold in its simplicity. In answering, you're supposed to go with your gut. If it's a quick "Yes, it sparks joy," the item should be kept. If the answer is no, it gets tossed.

There are people in life who will support our efforts to do God's will. There are those who will, as Paul says, "convince, reprimand, (and) encourage," unafraid of the reaction we give them. There are those who will shore up our defenses when the battle goes longer than we thought.

The same goes for hobbies and pastimes. There are those that will ennoble our minds and bring us closer to God. And there are also those that will drain our funds and our free time, with nothing to show for it.

During these autumn months, don't just declutter your basement in preparation for the hauling out of the Christmas ornaments. Take stock of the people and pursuits that make up your life. With each one, ask yourself: "Does it spark holiness?"

If the answer is yes, thank God that our help is from the Lord, who made heaven and earth. If the answer is no, maybe it's time to declutter.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

"How many of you say: I should like to see His face, His garments, His shoes. You do see Him, you touch Him, you eat Him. He gives Himself to you, not only that you may see Him, but also to be your food and nourishment."
- St. John Chrysostom

FIRST EVER MEMORY ALBUM OF STS. PETER & PAUL CHURCH

Many exciting things are happening as we prepare for our 40th Anniversary, and there is so much history to honor!

In continued preparation for our 2026 Celebration, we invite you to share your special thoughts and memories about Sts. Peter & Paul Church. What is your first recollection? When did you arrive? Who was our Pastor at that time? What significant experiences here hold a special place in your heart?

Our goal is to create an archive of your presence in our parish family for today and for future generations. If you have something to share with us, please contact Eileen or Tim Monahan at emttouch@gmail.com.

Thank you for your participation in this fun, and memorable journey!

PARISH NURSE NEWS

The Good Shepherd Ministry and the Health Ministry will have a joint meeting on TUESDAY, OCTOBER 18TH AT 7PM. Contact Catherine Heffley (757.813.1992) or Frank Feliciano (434.242.0735) for location information and other related questions. New volunteers are always welcome. If you have an interest in helping others, please join us!

Health Literacy is success in obtaining, understanding and taking prudent action on health or medication-related information. It's not uncommon for people to be confused about information and directions that are given to them by health care professionals. Even with a medical background, it can be daunting to understand and remember info obtained at an appointment or ER visit. It's a good idea for someone with you to listen in and ask questions that you might not think of.

Recently I had surgery to remove 2 screws from a kneecap fractured 8 years ago, (I tripped on a purse strap getting out of the car). The orthopedic doctor ordered blood work and referred me to a "trauma specialist" after showing me a "luminosity" on a my x-ray. I had not heard either term before, but it seemed there was a concern about an infection causing the discomfort over the last several months. The blood work was normal and I assume the surgery went well, (no antibiotics, no restrictions except driving). But I haven't talked to the doctor since before the surgery. When the stitches come out soon, I'll have some questions to ask.

Asking questions, repeating directions, taking notes and asking for clarification are all part of "Health Literacy." If there's a decision to be made, my tip is to ask the doctor: "What would YOU do in my situation?"

Need help? Feel free to email me at, caheffley@aol.com

Days for Life

Dear Friends in Christ,

Please mark your calendars for the opening of our fall 40 Days for Life Campaign which began on Wednesday, September 28. Encourage others to sign up to receive pertinent info about the campaign from Shawn Carney and from me, your local campaign leader at 40daysforlife.com/Charlottesville.

Your daily prayers are greatly needed! Please sign up on our local website for our peaceful vigils. The earlier you sign up the sooner we can build a stronger presence of prayer warriors on the sidewalk, faithfully praying for an end to abortion in our community and Commonwealth. I encourage you to invite a friend or family member to join you at the vigil site in front of Planned Parenthood, 2964 Hydraulic Road

Our prayer vigil day and time is Wednesdays at 10am. Our last day is November 2nd. If you are interested in joining the crew, they meet at Jefferson Pharmacy parking lot to carpool and leave no later than 9:15am. If you'd like to join but drive yourself, there is a parking lot across the street from Planned Parenthood.

May we use these 40 Days for Life to plead for God's mercy and grace for all those involved in the sin of abortion.

May God bless you,

Delia Laux, Charlottesville Campaign Leader

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Does God finally answer our persistent prayers to stop us from bothering Him? The thought that persistent prayer can be disturbing or upsetting to God does not ring true with the images of God as compassionate, understanding, merciful, and loving that our tradition conveys. Yet, Jesus tells his disciples to “pray always without becoming weary.”

Maybe the type of prayer necessary to endure the trials of discipleship and the challenges and criticisms of Christian teaching goes beyond words. We need to tend to the realities of human life. The persistent prayer of which Jesus speaks is the prayer of the heart. This contemplative, silent, loving prayer gives us the vision to see God in all things, especially in each human soul. Desiring God alone and not only what we want God to do for us places this love relationship foremost in our minds, hearts, and souls. As we breathe in and exhale out, the Divine Life flows. This alone can provide the strength of endurance to confront anything contrary to the truth of faith.

October Wedding Anniversaries

If you are celebrating your wedding anniversary in October and wish to be part of the marriage blessing at Mass on November 6th, please contact the office by

Friday, October 28th.

SHARE THE GOSPEL

Jesus told his disciples that they should never stop praying. He said that you should never give up. If your cause is worthy and good, keep asking for it. Keep asking God for help for your good things. The noisy wheel gets the most grease. When you keep asking God for help, He will know you are sincere. Can you give ten good reasons why you are asking God for what you need?.

PRAYER

Lord, hear my prayer and please answer me.

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK -

REFLECT AND RESPOND TO SCRIPTURE

First Reading:

Moses had to depend upon his brother Aaron and his associate, Hur, to help defeat the Amalekites in battle. Who among your friends or family helps you to grow in your faith?

Second Reading:

Paul teaches Timothy that sacred Scripture is a tool for teaching, correction and training. Do you have a favorite passage or story from Scripture?

Gospel:

Jesus uses the parable of the persistent widow to teach the disciples about the importance of diligence in prayer. What does prayer look like for you?

OCTOBER 9, 2022*

* Info unavailable at time of Publication.

Thank you for your generous support!

If you have pictures or ministry information to add to St. Joseph's website, please email Melissa at: kenneymg@gmail.com

- ◆ October is the Month of the Rosary.
- ◆ There are three women among the 33 "Doctors of the Church." They are: Saints Catherine of Siena, Teresa of Avila, and Theresa of Lisieux.
- ◆ For All Saints Day, Masses will be celebrated at 9am at St. Joseph's and at noon and 7pm at Sts. P&P.
- ◆ Cats can hear ultrasounds.
- ◆ Like fingerprints, no two lip impressions are the same.

"The culmination of the Mass is not the consecration, but Communion."
