ENCOUNTER

National Catholic Schools Week – January 29 – February 4, 2023

National Catholic Schools Week is set aside each year at the end of January so that we can celebrate our Catholic schools and express our gratitude for their legacy of excellence. We celebrate this week with Charlottesville Catholic School.

Every Catholic is called to pass on our faith (cf. Matthew 28:19) and to be a witness to the message of Christ. This means all of us have a responsibility to support Catholic education for our youth and for future generations. Catholic identity is intrinsic to our schools and the reason for their success, although children of other faiths are welcome.

The need for Catholic identity and Catholic education now is clear. We live in an increasingly materialistic and secular world. Our youth must be grounded in their knowledge of the authentic teaching of the Church so they can live full, happy and holy lives in Christ. At our Catholic Schools, the fundamental task is educating the whole person by integrating Christian values with learning in daily life -- recognizing the uniqueness and individuality of children -- which guide them to discover and develop their God-given gifts

The work of encountering Christ and sharing his love and the story of his good news with others unfolds in a special way every day. The community of our Catholic schools is grounded in our Catholic faith. Through the eyes of faith students are able to envision a better world, one in which Christ's light shines brightly in us and all that they do in every classroom, school activity and service program.

It is precisely because of our faith that our schools are communities of knowledge. Our local Charlottesville Catholic School is fully accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools and the National Catholic Education Association.

With knowledge and understanding of what is true and good, our young people are prepared to meet the challenges of the human condition and are freed to do that which they ought to do, not merely what they can do. Loving one another as Jesus loves us is integral to this approach. A faith-filled education begins with the family and grows through the community.

Our Catholic schools' communities of faith, knowledge and service offer a better life both now and in the world to come, not only for the students, but for all of those whose lives are touched by the good example, good deeds and faith of our graduates.

Father of all knowledge, we pray that, through the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, you continue to bless and guide all Catholic Schools and in particular the students, teachers and staff of both CCS and all Catholic Schools. Amen.

SHARE THE GOSPEL

God sees the loving things you do. When you show kindness to others, especially when they don't deserve it, your kindness will come back to you. When you see others fighting, and you help them get along, you show that you are God's child. When you are gentle, not bossy, you make God smile. Even when it is hard, keep on doing what's right. One day in heaven God will reward you for the good choices you make.

PRAYER

Dear God, help me love other people the way you want me to.

The Humble of the Earth

When I think of the Beatitudes, I think of collectible coffee mugs emblazoned with the words Blessed are the peacemakers, with little pastel flowers stenciled in the white spaces of the lettering. I think of greeting cards and decorative wall hangings. Why? These are the Beatitudes, for heaven's sake — revolutionary and radical. An uncompromising impeachment of worldly values. They are the opposite of banal.

But I cringed from my head to my toes when I read my first draft of this reflection, a retelling of a time in my life when I decided to embrace humility and meekness. I realized that the Beatitudes aren't something I can tell you about. Poverty of spirit, the hunger for righteousness, the gladness God gives to the downtrodden — these are concepts that must be animated within us. They must be lived. So instead of telling you my story, I want you to tell yours. I invite you to think of a time when you were vulnerable. When you were discouraged or humbled or felt like a failure. A time when you were cut low. The loss of a job, perhaps, or the rejection of a loved one. The abrupt end of some road that you felt sure would be long and prosperous.

Resentment, envy, and vengefulness flourish in moments like this. Did you experience those feelings? Did you embrace them? Did you want to? What did the world tell you this moment should mean?

What does Christ tell you it should mean? Have you figured it out, or are you still working on it?

God chose the foolish of the world to shame the wise, and God chose the weak of the world to shame the strong. — 1 Corinthians 1:27

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Saint Vs. Blessed

Question:

What is the difference between a "Saint" and a "Blessed"?

Answer:

The process of proclaiming someone as a saint in the Catholic Church has evolved over the course of many centuries. In the beginning, those honored as saints were almost exclusively biblical figures or martyrs. However, after the legalization of Christianity in the fourth century, new holy women and men came to be honored as saints, and this was often done by popular acclaim or by the local bishop or abbot. It was Pope Gregory IX (who was pope from 1227 to 1241) who officially proclaimed that only the pope had the authority to add someone to the official list (the "canon") of saints. This is the meaning of the word "canonization."

Today, the saint-making process includes several steps, including detailed studies of the person's life and a recognition that they died as a martyr or lived a life of "heroic virtue." Once someone is recognized as a martyr or if a miracle is attributed to their intercession, they will be beatified and honored as "Blessed." This means that they can be celebrated by Catholics in a particular country or region or by the members of certain religious community. If another miracle occurs and is approved, then the "Blessed" is canonized and honored with the title "Saint," meaning that they are now officially recognized as a universal model of holiness and an intercessor.

Let's keep the ball rolling. . .

How long have you been a parishioner of St. Joseph's? Who was the pastor when you arrived? Can you explain why the property is known as "Free Hill?"

Do you have something good to share about our church, its history and its people? Your experiences are important and valued as we trace our steps back in time, to 1884, when the Eucharist was first celebrated here.
