ENCOUNTER

Patriot Day is observed every September 11 to mark the anniversary of the terrorist attacks against the United States. This year's observance will be a cause of much reflection and remembrance. As we work for peace, forgiveness and reconciliation, let us make this a time for hope in God's grace, in ourselves and in one another.

PRAYER

O Lord God, our heavenly Father, regard, we pray, with your divine pity, the pains of all your children. As we remember the horrifying events of 22 years ago on September 11, 2001, hold us in the shelter of your enduring love. Grant that the passion of our Lord and his infinite love may make fruitful for good the tribulations of the innocent, the sufferings of the rescuers and the sorrows of the bereaved.

O, Lord, remember us in our desire to live out your purpose for us in creation. Fill us with comradeship, loyalty, humility, courage, generosity and greatness of heart which grow out of suffering. May we bring peace to others of all races and faiths and in that action find peace for ourselves. Give us peace in our time, O Lord, we pray. Amen.

DID YOU KNOW THAT...

WHILE SOME PROTESTANT DENOMINATIONS RECEIVE COMMUNION, THE CATHOLIC CHURCH IS THE ONLY ONE WHO BELIEVES THAT DURING THE EUCHARIST, THE BREAD AND WINE THAT THE PRIEST CONSECRATES TRULY BECOMES THE BODY AND BLOOD OF JESUS (TRANSUBSTANTIATION)? THIS IS NOT JUST A SYMBOL BUT CHRIST HIMSELF WHO SACRIFICES HIMSELF FOR MEN ONCE AGAIN?

The Eucharist is the REAL presence of the Body and Blood of Christ.

LADIES AUXILIARY

Everyday Stewardship

I have to smile when I read in St. Paul's Letter to the Romans, "Owe nothing to anyone, except to love one another." I smile because I know that in today's world few people owe nothing to anyone. We have credit card debt, mortgages, student loans, car loans, and new loans to consolidate old loans. It would seem that we actually owe everything to everyone.

These debts are of this world. I am pretty sure no one residing in heaven is still making mortgage payments. We have created contracts in this world to make possible certain transactions of goods, services, and shelter. But there is one thing that we naturally owe one another and that lasts longer than our time on earth: love.

You do not need to take out a loan to have more love to give. There also is no limit to the love you have been given to share. However, it is the one gift that we sometimes treat with the least respect. We hold back love due to sins of pride, prejudice, and apathy. We distort and manipulate love for our own gain and selfish desires. We can find ourselves placing more importance on the things for which we have taken out loans than the love that is eternal.

I am trying the best I can to get to a point where I no longer owe anything to banks and mortgage lenders. I don't want to leave this world owing anyone for the earthly things I had in this life. But even more importantly, I realize the shame it would be to leave people behind that didn't get enough love from me. There is nothing greater than love.
